Dying for a Ride Program is a one to two hour school or community based presentation specifically targeting young drivers. The intent of the presentation is to enlighten teenage drivers to the tragic consequences of impaired or distracted driving.

We are a group of Registered Nurses, Paramedics and accident survivors who dedicate our time to deliver a message of safety to young drivers. Contact Jay Garfinkel, Program Director at 610-283-5748 or garfinkeljay@msn.com. Sponsored by Uwchlan Ambulance Corps.

Explorer Post is open for fourteen to twenty-one year olds who are interested in the medical and health care professions. For more information, please call 610-363-1067, Extension 41.
